Background and Coaching Experience

MJ's is a renowned leadership coach with extensive executive coaching experience in a range of organizations across Asia. With a robust reputation as an expert in the areas of Communication, Behavior and Performance, MJ works with high-potential talent, leaders and the C-Suite to build on their leadership potential and support them through important transition journeys. Her goal is to maximize the coachee's potential, while aligning their objectives and the organizations strategic goals.

From her own leadership experience and study in the area of human behavior and organizational dynamics, MJ has built a deep understanding of the needs of leadership roles and the process to build them. She brings this knowledge alive in a coaching environment through her energetic and engaging style and interactions that put her coachee is their most resourceful mindset. As a deep and focused observer of behavior, MJ builds the self-awareness of her coachees through focusing on their messages, non-verbal communication, EQI and moods that drive behavior and manifest as actions.

MJ brings a wealth of HR generalist and entrepreneurial experience that adds gravitas to her coaching style and feedback. She is also the founding member of Hong Kong Coaching Community, which reflects her commitment to build professional coaching platforms and community in Asia. As a personal mission, MJ promotes and helps organizations build warmth, cultural awareness and inclusive mindset that helps global companies think local.
