It's your "time" to present with impact

- Presentation skills trends - what's new in presenting?
- Why do we need to change?
- Learning current trends that change our behaviour (Ted.com, 3MT, YouTube)

Plan –Design- Deliver a great message to support a strong delivery

Know Your Audience - Understanding what makes people listen

- Understand the foundations of effective communication and building credibility with your audience
- Critical steps in planning for an important presentation/meeting or communication opportunity
- Know who your audience is, why they are here and what action you want from them

Integrating 3 V's (Visual, Vocal, Verbal) for impactful pitches and identifying your natural style

- Learn how do you show-up, speak-up and speak-out
- The "power of the pause" and getting the timing right to emphasize key ideas
- Voice Aerobics to emphasis key messages tone, volume and pitch-conversations
- Learn a method to integrate and deliver your message with confidence, integrity and influence with key factors such as body language, voice and effective verbal message that make an excellent presentation delivery

Structure presentations to maximize clarity and influence, by creating a story about your purpose, facts and data

- The Pyramid Model: A very effective model for constructing memorable and engaging messages to suit a variety of situations, audiences and timeframe
- The Elevator Speech:
 - Focus on clear, concise content
 - Strong start to engage and capture the audience with a WOW effecting

Making the right use of Visual Aids

- You are the visual connector and other tools are the visual aid
- Do's and Don'ts of using visual aids – "Less is More"
- Review ways to incorporate visual aids without overwhelming the audience with information

Final Presentation (Videotaped Presentation)

Teams, Groups and Panels – Presenting with others to appreciate the power of synergy and teamwork. This module will be a consolidation of all the new skill sets learnt plus the added pressure of design, message, notes, timeliness and delivery as a team. Participants will support and rehearse with each other to deliver a joint message bringing all the components together, in order to influence and persuade their audience.

Feedback and Self-Reflection

After each presentation we will watch the video and give feedback. Both the trainer and the participant-peers will share constructive feedback. If a participant is still having difficulty with a part of their presentation, the trainer may give some suggestions (by modeling the desired skill) and then ask the presenter to try it for him or herself again.
